Senior Spotlight Emily Stence

Matthew 25:40

And the King shall answer and say unto them, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Emily says that her mother has been very encouraging, always gives the best advise, and is completely honest with her.

She feels that all of her high school teachers have been encouraging.

Some favorites: Math, chicken fajitas, basketball, Lincoln Peirce.

Favorite saying—Snap-a-roo!

She has played the clarinet, was born in Florida, likes the Baltimore Aquarium.

Within the next 10 years Emily would like to grow spiritually and become a nurse or veterinarian.

Wise piece of advice:

“Be kind, for everyone you meet is fighting a harder battle.” Plato

From Peers

Quiet, makes hilarious noises while sleeping in chapel, very diligent, works hard, nice, a good saleswoman, takes time off of school to deliver class donuts.

From Teachers

Diligent, serious about her work, enjoys laughing and having a good time, a solid steady individual with a heart set on serving God.
