Student Spotlight

Jaron Edward Reese

Son of Jeremy and Rebekah Reese

Jaron's grandparents have been a good influence on him.

He really appreciates that Mrs. Black let him stay after school to catch up on math until well after supper, and then took him home.

Wise pieces of advice: You aren't learning anything when you're talking, and always write your assignments down.

Jaron has visited the countries of Honduras, Costa Rica, Romania, Turkey, and Hungary.

He felt like the most interesting place he has been is Romania.

A few favorites: Algebra II, Spanish II, Advanced Computer, PVCA mozzarella sticks and chicken sandwiches, football, disc golf, and ultimate frisbee.

Something you may not know is that he likes to lasso, fly a trick kite, and process firewood.

He would like to attend college and get married within the next 10 years.

His choice of a career is to become a private licensed pilot.
